

2016 U.S. WOMEN'S OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP

CordeValle, San Martin, Calif.

MEDIA NOTES

Tuesday, July 5

FIELD ADDITION – Amy Anderson, Oxbow, N.D.

As no players entered the top 50 of the Rolex Rankings beyond the two players announced on July 4, Amy Anderson, 23, of Oxbow, N.D., has been added to the 2016 U.S. Women's Open Championship field. She was the first alternate from the Becker, Minn., qualifying site. Anderson, the 2009 U.S. Girls' Junior champion who currently plays on the LPGA Tour, is competing in her second U.S. Women's Open, having finished 63rd in 2011.

The U.S. Women's Open field is now full at 156 players.
